

Gaillard Family Civil War Letters

The Gaillard letters handed down to Frye Gaillard and included in his book were not original, handwritten documents, but typescripts made from the originals. The images here are of calligraphic reconstructions of the letters made for the film.

August 4, 1861

Dear Mother
I received your kind letter of the 28th and was glad to hear from you. I am well and hope these few lines will find you the same. I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the army and have not much time to write. I have not seen you since we parted and I have not heard from you since. I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the army and have not much time to write. I have not seen you since we parted and I have not heard from you since. I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the army and have not much time to write. I have not seen you since we parted and I have not heard from you since.

I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the army and have not much time to write. I have not seen you since we parted and I have not heard from you since. I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the army and have not much time to write. I have not seen you since we parted and I have not heard from you since.

I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the army and have not much time to write. I have not seen you since we parted and I have not heard from you since. I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the army and have not much time to write. I have not seen you since we parted and I have not heard from you since. I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the army and have not much time to write. I have not seen you since we parted and I have not heard from you since.

I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the army and have not much time to write. I have not seen you since we parted and I have not heard from you since. I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the army and have not much time to write. I have not seen you since we parted and I have not heard from you since. I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the army and have not much time to write. I have not seen you since we parted and I have not heard from you since.

